

The List of International Schools in The Netherlands

Including European and foreign national schools.

In The Netherlands you will find private international schools as well as subsidized international education at so-called Dutch International Schools*, which feature an international curriculum taught in English according to the international standard at a relatively low fee compared to private schools. (For more information on curricula check www.ibo.org; www.internationalprimarycurriculum.org and www.cie.org.uk/qualifications/academic/middlesec/igcse/overview).

SECONDARY VOCATIONAL EDUCATION MBO

If a student has successfully completed the (I)GCSE or IB-MYP but is not admitted to the IB-Diploma Program, the MBO (3-4 years) might be a good option. In The Netherlands students can follow several English language programs in e.g. Business and Hospitality (www.mbo-raad.nl).

Students with the (I)GCSE Diploma (with at least 4 subjects at A* - C) plus GCE (with two subjects at AS-level) are eligible for admission to HBO (see below).

The IB-Organization has developed a new curriculum, the IBCP (Career-related Program, www.ibo.org/ibcc) as an alternative of the IBDP for the final two high school years.

The BSN in Voorschoten already offers this programme in Business.

THIRD LEVEL VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

HBO, Hogeschool or University of Applied Sciences

Throughout the country many 'hogescholen' or 'universities of applied sciences' offer programmes in English. You may visit www.hbo-raad.nl/?id=124 for more information.

UNIVERSITIES

In The Netherlands academic education or third level degree- education (universiteit) is offered in Maastricht, Eindhoven, Tilburg, Nijmegen, Wageningen, Enschede, Groningen, Utrecht, Amsterdam (UvA, VU), Leiden (also with a campus in Den Haag), Delft, Rotterdam, and Middelburg.

More information about (English Language) higher or third level education can be found at the websites of the NUFFIC (Netherlands Organisation for International Cooperation in Higher Education) in The Hague (www.studyinholland.nl), the Study Portals (www.studyportals.eu), and DUO (www.duo.nl).

TEACHERS

Teachers who want to teach in the NL need to have their foreign teaching credentials recognized by the Dutch Ministry of Education. You may visit www.educaide.nl/teachers.php for more information.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE SCHOOLS

If you are looking for an after school language program of your mother tongue at primary and/or secondary school level, it is best to contact your embassy for more information.

MORE INFORMATION

In order to be able to gather more information on various topics you may visit the following websites: www.minocw.nl, www.epnuffic.nl, www.sio.nl, www.ipssg.nl, www.access-nl.org, www.xpat.nl, www.newtoholland.nl, www.expatica.com, and of course www.educaide.nl.
