

Welcome

to Delft

2020

Informative morning hosted by the City of Delft, Delft University of Technology (TU Delft) and ACCESS, to welcome new international arrivals to Delft.

Friday 27 March

Registration deadline

20 March

 Gemeente Delft

 TU Delft

ACCESS

The “Welcome to Delft” programme is designed for those coming to work and live in Delft. Family members are welcome and encouraged to attend. The morning programme includes an overview of useful resources for finding information, a chance to have questions answered by ACCESS volunteers, an opportunity to meet fellow internationals, and a short informative guided visit through the historic centre.

Programme

09:15 - 09:30	Arrival/coffee Rietveld Theater, Rietveld 49, 2611 LH Delft
09:30 - 09:40	Welcome by City of Delft & Delft University of Technology
09:40 - 10:00	Living in the Netherlands: “Who are the Dutch?” Presented by Caitriona Rush of At Home Abroad
10:00 - 10:20	Introduction to local resources for cultural activities etc.
10:20 - 10:30	Introduction to ACCESS website: “What ACCESS can do for internationals,” presented by ACCESS volunteers
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee, tea break and prepare for walking tour
11:00 - 12:30	Guided walking tour through the historic city centre

- Pre-registration required via register.access-nl.org/delft
- Questions via delft@access-nl.org
- Participation is free of charge!